Rosita Mauri

Recuerdos

Limited Collection

Para esta original y preciosa colección nos hemos inspirado en Rosita Mauri, (1849-1923) mallorquina de nacimiento y catalana por familia. Fue una excepcional primera bailarina de los principales teatros europeos de la época. Hija del coreógrafo y bailarín Pere Mauri y bajo su influencia, empieza a bailar en el cuerpo de baile del Teatro Principal de Barcelona el año 1870. Adquiere fama y popularidad tanto por su talento y su técnica como por su personalidad a causa de su carácter temperamental y su encanto personal. Este es una fuente de inspiración para numerosos artistas que la immortalizan en su obra, como son los escultores Bensi, Puesch, Marqueste, Euxebi, Arnau, y los pintores Edgar Degas, Lèpic, Andres Zorna, Bonnat, M. Bertier, Manet... Y hoy nos sigue inspirando.

Rosita Mauri (1849-1923) was our inspiration for this exclusive and beautiful collection. This Majorcan dancer with roots in Catalonia was an outstanding prima ballerina of her era. Her father Pere Mauri's, choreographer and dancer, introduced her in the corps de ballet of the Teatre Principal (Barcelona) in 1870.

She became famous and popular not only because of her talent and technique but also because of her temperamental personality and personal charm which inspired numerous artists. She was immortalized in several artistic works of sculptors like Bensi, Puesch, Marqueste, Euxebi, Arnau, and painters such as Edgar Degas, Lèpic, Andres Zorna, Bonnat, M. Bertier, Manet... Nowadays she is still inspiring us.

Por su gran aportación Al Petit Ballet esta colección esta dedicada a nuestra amiga Mercè Rovira Mauri.

This collection is dedicated to our beloved friend Mercè Rovira Mauri. We want to thank her valuable contribution to El Petit Ballet.
